Answer: THOMAS A. STONE, CHRISTIE A. GAULT, HENRY H. GIBBONS and LINGURN S. BURKHEAD.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

Two stanzas of hymn number 729 were sung:

"Why do we mourn departing friends," and the Bishop led in prayer.

W. C. WILLSON read the memoir of THOMAS A. STONE, prepared by W. H. BOBBITT:

MEMOIR OF REV. T. A. STONE.

Rev. Thomas Anderson Stone was born in Pittsylvania county, Va., March 14th, 1853, and died February 12th, 1887. At the age of 17 he was converted and joined the M. E. Church, South, and by a pious walk and godly conversation adorned his profession. He graduated at Emory and Henry College, Va., with distinction. At the session of our Conference held at Wilson December 5th, 1879, he was received on trial into the traveling connection. His first pastoral charge was the Hillsboro Circuit, which he faithfully and efficiently served during the year 1880. In 1881 and 1882 he was stationed at Chapel Hill; in 1883 and 1884 he was stationed at Lexington. December, 1884, he was appointed by Bishop Parker to the Salisbury Circuit, which work he served with remarkable success until his peaceful death. Brother Stone was a model christian, a close student, a good preacher, and one of the most useful pastors I have ever known. His chief aim, every day, everywhere, whether in the pulpit or family circle, was to do good. The good he accomplished while on his last work will not be known nor fully appreciated while time shall last. Eternity alone will reveal it. Each year a large number of souls were converted and the church was raised to a higher plain of christian living. Upon returning from our last Conference he expressed to me a purpose to do a better work this year than he had ever done, and he wisely and diligently performed his full duty until the Master called him to rest. His sickness was of short duration. The gospel he had preached to others brought abundant support and rich consolation while for eight days he was so great a sufferer.

Knowing that the end was nigh he committed his pastoral charge, his wife and two little children to God and sweetly fell on sleep in Jesus.

M. W. BOYLES read the memoir of CHRISTIE A. GAULT:

MEMOIR OF REV. CHRISTIE A. GAULT.

Christie Alonzo Gault was born in Lincoln county, N. C., February 4th, 1850. He joined the M. E. Church, South, at the age of twelve years, but was not converted until some time afterward. About the year 1866 his parents moved to South Carolina, and while living in that State he was converted and received license to exhort. In the year 1871, Bro. Gault returned to North Carolina and entered school at Rutherford College. In 1872 he left school and returned to South Fork Circuit, his old home, and was licensed to preach by a Quarterly Conference held at Bethlehem church. He was immediately employed by his Presiding Elder, Rev. Sam. Leard, and during the year 1873, he labored on Dallas Circuit as a supply. At the close of that year he joined the North Carolina Conference at Goldsboro and was appointed to Straits Mission. Before going to his work he returned to his home on South Fork Circuit, and on the 8th of January, 1874, he was happily married to Miss Maggie Keever, of Catawba county.

After faithfully traveling Straits Mission he was appointed to Cherry Mountain Mission for the year 1875, Wilkes Circuit in 1876, McDowell Circuit in 1877 and 1878, Double Shoals Circuit in 1879 and 1880, South Fork Circuit in 1881-'82 and '83, Forsyth Circuit in 1884, Table Rock Circuit in 1885-'86. At the Conference at Reidsville, N. C., December, 1886, he was appointed to the Alexander Circuit for the year 1887. This appointment, like all preceding, he received in the fear of God and in the spirit of a true itinerant preacher. He entered promptly and vigorously upon his work and soon gained the confidence and esteem of his people. Early in September, at the request of his Presiding Elder, he attended Snow Creek camp meeting, on the Iredell Circuit, and was abundant in labors both in the pulpit and in the altar.

His soul seemed to be specially drawn out in prayer and his preaching was "in demonstration of the Spirit and of power." The last sermon he preached at that camp meeting was from Numbers 10th chapter and 29th verse: "We are journeying unto the place of which the Lord said, I will give it you; come thou with us," etc. Little did any one present suppose that with him the journey was so near an end. But that was his last sermon. That fearful disease, typhoid fever, which was to lay him low in death, had its hand upon him and was already at work in his system. The next day he returned to his home in Taylorsville, N. C., and laid himself down to die. Medical skill and the offices of kind friends were insufficient to arrest the disease.

For more than two weeks he continued to grow worse, and at an early hour on Saturday morning, September 24th, 1887, he passed away from the labors and sufferings of earth to the rest that remaineth to the people of God.

From an early stage of his sickness Bro. Gault anticipated the result. He seemed to be impressed that he would not recover. The night before his death, calling the different members of his family to his bedside, he kissed them all farewell, and then when asked by Rev. W. T. Nelson, if he had any message for his brethren of the Conference, he said, "Tell them when the messenger came I was ready." Brother Gault was a good preacher, a faithful pastor, a sweet-spirited and cheerful christian, a true friend, a devoted husband and an affectionate father. He left a wife and four children, to whom his death has brought a great sorrow; but they sorrow not as those who have no hope. He is not lost but gone before. At the grave of the sainted dead they can stand and sing:

"Yet again I hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled,
Then in heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tear is shed."

J. T. ABERNETHY read the memoir of HENRY H. GIBBONS:

MEMOIR OF REV. HENRY H. GIBBONS.

The Rev. Henry Hardy Gibbons, son of Rev. John and Mary Speight Gibbons, was born in Green county, N. C., October 14th, 1818. He was converted and joined the Methodist E. Church when he was thirteen years of age, at "Old Rainbow," Snow Hill Circuit, North Carolina Conference, under the ministry of Rev. Henry Speck. He was united in marriage November 25th, 1836, to Miss Elizabeth Hardy, who contributed greatly to his usefulness and happiness, until two years ago when she died in great peace. He served as class leader, exhorter or local preacher, after he was grown, until November 16th, 1850, when he joined the North Carolina Conference at Warrenton as a local deacon. Ordained Elder at the Conference at Louisburg in 1852.

His first appointment, 1851, was Snow Hill Circuit. His subsequent charges were Trent in 1852, Edgecombe in 1853, and in 1854 as assistant, Neuse in 1855 and 1856, Williamston in 1857 and 1858, Mattamuskeet in 1859 and 1860, Sampson in 1861 and 1862, Rockingham in 1863 and 1864, Haw River in 1865, 1866 and 1867, Wake Circuit in 1868, Henderson in 1869, 1870, 1871 and 1872, Tar River in 1873, 1874 and 1875, Person circuit in 1876, 1877, 1878 and 1879, Orange in 1880 and 1881, Leasburg in 1882 and 1883, closing his active ministry on Duplin Circuit in 1884. At the ensuing Conference held in Wilmington he was granted a superannuated relation.

He has never been able to do very much preaching during the intervening years. His physical force gradually abated until Sunday night, November 13th, 1887, when he retired about 10 o'clock, soon fell asleep and did not awake again, thus passing through the valley without being conscious of its shadows. What a mercy thus to die? For twenty-six years there had been no death in his large family. During the last five years two noble sons, in great honor and usefulness, his youngest and favorite daughter and his precious wife, had been taken from him. The increasing trouble so oppressed him that for twelve months or more his mind sympathized with his enfeebled body, causing much more of mental than bodily suffering. He was blessed with lucid periods, and for several days immediately before his death he was entirely himself and looked anxiously and joyously for the messenger to call him home. He gave abundant evidence that he was fully ready. He died at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. James Westbrooks, at Mt. Olive, and was buried at Faisons, by the side of his wife, in the family grave yard of another son-in-law, Mr. Samuel Westbrooks.

Rev. J. T. Abernethy preached his funeral sermon, and with Rev. W. M. Robey performed the burial rites.

He leaves four daughters and one son—all of whom are members of the church—grown and married. May God comfort them and grant them eternal union in heaven.

As a christian his faith was simple and restful on the promises of God, which usually gave him great cheerfulness amid the duties and testings of life. As a preacher he was sound in doctrine, concise in statement, forcible in illustration, with a pathos and tearful tenderness which gave him great success in winning souls to Christ. What a multitude will reach heaven through his instrumentality—a glorious crown is his.

It was my privilege to be often at the bedside of Bro. Gibbons in his last illness. In his lucid intervals—and they were many—his faith and resignation were beautiful to see. He talked often about the preachers and their work, and sent them many messages of love. He made many enquiries about the brethren and rejoiced greatly in their success. His greatest trouble was that he could not preach. I think if he had had his way he would have loved to die in the pulpit with the name and gospel of Christ upon his lips. There were times when we were not without hope that he might again work in the cause that had been so dear to his heart. Once, indeed, he grew strong enough to attend church and pray with something of the old time fervor. But again his strength gave way and he began to make ready for his passage hence. There was no weakening of faith and no dread of death. He was ready, and his departure, while he was peacefully sleeping, is to my mind no unfit close to a life so signally marked with the peaceful victories of Divine Love.

W. M. ROBEY read the memoir of LINGURN S. BURKHEAD:

MEMOIR OF LINGURN S. BURKHEAD.

Lingurn Skidmore Burkhead was born in the Southeastern part of Davidson county, N. C., on the 17th day of May 1824, and died in Fayetteville on the 2d of December, 1887, aged 63 years, 6 months and 15 days.

He was the son of Wm. Burkhead, and his mother's maiden name was Harris. His father died a few years since at an advanced age, but his mother still survives, together with several brothers and sisters. Lingurn spent his boyhood on his father's farm and became inured to all ordinary farm work which developed a firm, physical constitution and a strong, vigorous, resolute mind.

The Burkhead family, though neither wealthy nor celebrated, belonged to the highly respected, well-to-do class of a very moral and industrious community. It was a neighborhood above the average at that day in its freedom from social vice. There was little drunkenness or profanity, and great equality of condition among the people. It is believed by those who were familiar with the boyhood of young Lingurn, that he never learned to use profane language or to drink intoxicating liquors, nor did he in his early youth contract any serious vice. In his boyhood he attended the neighborhood school as opportunity offered, acquiring the rudiments of an English education. Later he availed himself of better advantages at what was then called Union Institute (now Trinity College), under the tuition of Rev. Braxton Craven, alternately going to school and teaching to defray expenses, thus slowly, but persistently qualifying himself for the duties of life. It was in this way that he acquired a fair education which he afterwards improved upon by general reading and close study in connection with his ministerial duties. In addition to a fair English education he managed to secure an elementary knowledge of both Latin and Hebrew, which served him a valuable purpose in his peculiar calling. In 1846 or 1847, he was awakened and converted under the ministry of Rev. Alfred Norman. He soon felt that it was his duty to preach the gospel. He was licensed to preach in 1849, and was sent as a supply or junior preacher to Mocksville Circuit in Davie county. In the fall of 1849 he was admitted on trial into the North Carolina Conference, held that year in the town of Oxford. From that time till the day of his death he was never out of the itinerant harness. The following is a summary of his ministerial labors:

In 1849 he preached on the Mocksville Circuit, in 1850 on the Roanoke Circuit, in 1851 at Fifth Street Wilmington, in 1852--'53 at Plymouth, in 1854 at Chapel Hill, in 1855 on Roanoke Circuit, in 1856 at Salisbury, in 1857 at Tarboro, in 1858--'59 at Greensboro Station, in 1860--'61 at Fayetteville, in 1862 at Newbern, in 1863--'64 on Smithfield Circuit, in 1865 at Front Street Wilmington, and in 1866-'67-'68-'69 he was Presiding Elder on the Wilmington District, in 1870 he was stationed at Salisbury, in 1871 at Edenton Street, Raleigh, in 1872-'73 at Charlotte, in 1874 and part of 1875 he was Presiding Elder on the Shelby District; during the year 1875 he was removed to Edenton Street where he remained through the years 1876-'77, in 1878-79-'80-'81 he was on the Wilmington District, in 1882-'83-'84-'85 he was on Newbern Station, in 1886 at Goldsboro, in 1887 at Winston.

This brief summary of his travels and labors shows how he swung from one extreme to another. From the mountains to the sea his voice was heard like a trumpet telling in strong, firm tones the old, old story. He started on circuit work to which, because of his social qualities and his acquaintance with country life, he was well adapted. But his talents and peculiar adaptation to station and district work were soon perceived and appreciated, and the result was that most of his work was done on Stations and Districts. For the latter he possessed peculiar qualifications, and here perhaps he achieved his greatest success. Five times he had the honor of representing his Conference in the General Conference, and by appointments of the Bishops he was a delegate to the Great Ecumenical Council of Methodism in the city of London in the year 1881. At the time of his death he was in charge of Centenary Church in the city of Winston which he had served faithfully and acceptably only one year.

As a man Dr. Burkhead was the soul of honor. One who knew him in his boyhood says: "He was then just like he was in mature manhood. He has never changed." The man was completely outlined in the boy. He was true, brave and manly, always erect and above reproach. He grew up unstained by the little vices common to most boys, and was unstained to the end. He was positive, clear and decided in his convictions. He believed something and knew what it was. He had settled principles and he stood firmly by them. Stability was one of his great characteristics. A question once decided by him was neve rreopened. There was no facing about, no changing with the wind. Once it was decided to be a christian, it was decided. Once it was determined that he should preach the gospel, his call was never doubted. Once entered into the itinerancy the bridges were burned behind him. He never thought of doing anything else. Other men might debate the subject of locating. To him it never once occurred. He could no more have entertained the thought of leaving the itinerancy than that of surrendering his credentials or withdrawing from the church. To him the itinerant harness had no buckles. He must die with it on him. He would rather have died at a Methodist Conference than anywhere else in the world.

As a preacher his great characteristic was earnestness. He believed what he preached and preached what he believed. He dealt in verities. He never speculated. His theology was thoroughly Armenian, Wesleyan. His style was argumentative, logical, direct, practical. He was sometimes very forcible, sometimes eloquent, never trifling nor sensational, but always in earnest. He was not an ingenious sermonizer, but methodical, systematic and sound. He had no tricks, oddities, eccentricities. He was not a man of fancy, but of fact. He had imagination, but did not cultivate it. He could have used ornament, but did not lay it under contribution. He admired flowers, but did not use them. He loved to preach and was always ready, but did not over-estimate his own ability. He was not ashamed of his own ability, and did not despise himself. He knew that he possessed first-class abilities and was not wanting in self-confidence, but he despised no man who was less gifted than himself. He believed that God had a place and use for the humblest of his servants and he honored both them and their work. He magnified his office and his work, but did not disparage the work of others. He was a strong preacher and left an impression wherever he went. He sowed good seed and sowed abundantly, and often thrust in the sickle and garnered many sheaves. His memory will live fresh and green in the hearts of thousands who have known and loved him, and his crown will flash with many stars.

As a friend no man was ever more true. He was full of charity and sympathy. He had a large, tender, forgiving heart. Though discreet he was not always careful. Sometimes he was misunderstood. Sometimes he was wronged and wounded. He felt a sting keenly, but he had no malice. If he had an enemy in the world there was not one that he could not forgive. With his friends he was magnanimous. Like all men of positive convictions and true courage he often found his opinions at variance with those of his best friends. But with him, difference of opinion was never allowed to interfere with personal friendship. He could distinguish between a man's opinions and his motives. He had no difficulty in being the true and faithful friend to the man who belonged to the opposite party. He was fond of appreciation and loved to be honored by his brethren, but he loved to deserve the honor. He was ambitious in the best sense of the word, but he was never an office seeker nor a time-server for popular applause. He was glad to know that he rendered satisfaction, and the plaudit, "Well done good and faithful servant," was always grateful to his ear, but he never sought popular applause at the sacrifice of principle. His judgment was sometimes at fault because he was constitutionally sensitive and impulsive, but his heart was always right. By his brethren he was esteemed as a strong, true, stainless character worthy of their highest confidence, and this conviction was only strengthened by intimate association with him. He was always at his post fully up with the run of business, ready to speak if necessity required, and prompt to assume his share of responsibility in all emergencies. If he was ot always an safe counselor, he was always an honest one. The place which he filled among us was a large one. He was a recognized leader, and whether he was followed or not no man questioned his integrity. He was so identified with every church interest among us that scarcely another man among us would have been so missed at the present time.

The impression of his laborious faithful life will not soon fade from the memory of the church which he served with the glowing fervor and devotion of a true son.

The closing scene of this grand life is full of pathos. At the opening of this Conference he was present at the roll call and answered to his name. Of course Burkhead was there, when was he not? There was no abatement of interest in the work to be done. He was there in usual health in the full tide of his ordinary vitality, with a frank, cordial, earnest greeting for every fellow soldier, and every one was glad to meet our Burkhead, cheerful true, strong magnanimous, brave. Friday came and passed. We saw him that day, but knew not that we should see him no more. The sun went down and the curtain of night dropped around the world. Suddenly there was a jar in that compact human machine. What did it mean? A moment, an awful moment returned the answer.

There was hurry to and fro. Pale lips breathed in startled ears the awful words, "Burkhead is dead." Tearful eyes hastened to gaze on the sleeping form—sweetly sleeping as an infant on its mother's breast. Pale, calm, composed, with no trace of agony! Was there a pang, a groan, a prayer? The mounting spirit paused not to say farewell, nor halted in its flight to wave back to the living one signal of its triumph, till it stood full in the portal of light beneath a dawn whose day shall know no cloud nor close. Watching and waiting at the beautiful gate stood not unfamiliar forms to welcome home him who had no home on earth.

Sorrow bows our heads and tears be-dew the flowers that bloom on his grave and long shall it be ere we forget our loss. We shall miss him when we assemble, and think of him when alone, and speak of him by our firesides, and stronger shall grow the new-born resolve of full many a heart to emulate his noble virtues, if perchance we may be counted worthy to sit down with him in our Father's Kingdom.

O, 'tis blessed to mourn for the good and catch from the very shadow of death the inspiration of faith and hope that lifts the soul nearer to God and assures us that we tread daily on the confines of heaven.

The memoirs, being in the nature of the report of the committee, were adopted.

The memorial services were concluded.

FIRST ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF COLPORTAGE.

One year ago a system of Colportage was inaugurated by the Conference and Rev. P. L. Groome was appointed to put it into operation. It has been the work of this Board to carefully look into the manner in which the task has been performed, and it is exceedingly gratified to report to the Conference that both the "plan of Colportage" and the agent appointed to operate it have proven successful beyond our most sanguine expectations.

The system adopted was an experiment. The time of its inauguration was anything but auspicious. Hard times stared the project in the face. Less than ten per cent. of the pastoral charges in the Conference had met their assessments for the various Conference collections. The prophets of failure were not few. It seemed the most inopportune time to sell books. In addition to this, the agent was himself prevented by sickness, during the first six months, from working. Yet, notwithstanding all of these untoward circumstances, the results have been exceedingly gratifying.

District Colporteurs have been actively engaged, wherever they could be obtained, in taking our books from house to house.

The Agent reports 3,807 books bought from our Publishing House valued at $3,482.15; 890 volumes have been bought elsewhere, valued at $586.94; 504 Sunday-school papers have been subscribed for through his agency. In addition to this quite a number of subscribers have been obtained for our church papers.

At the beginning, there were many who feared that the plan agreed upon would take the book-selling business out of the hands of the preachers and put it upon the Agent alone. The facts are that the preachers of the North Carolina Conference have sold more books during the year just closed than during any previous year in the history of our Publishing House, while the business of our General Agent has been 25 per cent. larger than the sales effected by the Colportage system of our sister Conference of Virginia.

The Board submits the following resolutions for adoption by the Conference:

1. That it is the sense of this Board that the system of Colportage as inaugurated by our Conference and prosecuted by our Agent, brother Groome, has been a decided success, and that it be continued with all necessary agencies to make it successful in the future.

2. That we respectfully ask of our Book Agent and Manager at Nashville, Tennessee, that special rates be made with our General Agent of Colportage.

3. That our preachers and laymen do all in their power to assist the General Agent in securing the services of a suitable Colporteur for each District.

4. That it is the sense of this Conference that the law of the discipline requiring each pastor to see that his people be supplied with our publications be strictly and conscientiously carried out.

5. That the Bishop be requested to re-appoint Rev. P. L. Groome, General Agent.

F. L. REID, Chairman.

M. H. MOORE, Secretary.

Report subsequently amended and T. J. Gattis inserted in place of P. L. Groome, as General Agent.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Your committee beg to submit the following report:

1st. That we have read and carefully considered the address of Rev. J. D. Barbee, Agent of our Publishing House, together with the Supplemental exhibit of L. D. Palmer, Business Manager.

2d. We are rejoiced at the very great reduction of the indebtedness of the Publishing House and the skillful management of all its interest as shown in said address and supplement.

3d. We urge with emphasis that our people respond to the suggestions of our Agent, circulate and read McTyeire's History of Methodism.

4th. We are gratified to learn that our new Hymn Book will soon be ready, and we earnestly insist that our preachers and people use it for public worship on all occasions to the exclusion of all others.

5th. We recommend our Sunday-school literature to our preachers and Sunday-school superintendents as being better adapted to a systematic study of the Word of God in the Sunday-school than any other known to us, and would beg them not to yield to a popular demand for cheap Sunday-school literature, much of which is unsound in doctrine and impure in sentiment.

6th. We are glad to know that a series of catechisms are being prepared for our Sunday-schools, embodying the distinctive doctrines of Methodism. We sincerely hope our preachers and superintendents will take special pains to have our schools well supplied with these catechisms and see that the children and young people learn them thoroughly.

7th. We respectfully ask our Sunday-school Editor to give us an occasional lesson in which our doctrines are brought into prominence and discussed in our Quarterlies and Magazines.

8th. We heartily recommend the use of "The Methodist Armor," and the "Shield for Young Methodist," "The Sketches of Pioneer Methodists in North Carolina and Virginia," "Burkhead's Catechism on Baptism," and also "Nichol's Theological Grub Ax and Ecclesiastical Pump."

9th. We esteem our connectional organ, "The Christian Advocate," published at Nashville, as eminently worthy the patronage of our people and pledge our efforts to aid in increasing its patronage to 50,000 subscribers.

10th. Appreciating the importance and merits of the "Southern Quarterly Review," we commend it to our people, more especially our preachers.

11th. We note with pleasure the continued improvement and prosperity of "The Raleigh Christian Advocate." Its editorial management, full corps of contributors and neat mechanical appearance entitle it to high rank in the family of Advocates and merit for it a place in all our Methodist families, therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That we heartily endorse "The Raleigh Christian Advocate" as the organ of the North Carolina Conference, and that we will make increased efforts to extend its circulation.

Resolved, 2d. That, appreciating the energy, fidelity, ability and christian spirit of Rev. F. L. Reid, we request Bishop Key to re-appoint him editor of "The Raleigh Christian Advocate."

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHURCH PROPERTY.

Your committee find that, within the bounds of the Conference there are 896 churches, valued at $909,546, and 110 parsonages, valued at $136,875. Many improvements have been made during the year, in both churches and parsonages. Our people are giving more attention to architectural beauty as well as to the comfort of our houses of worship. We regard this as a good sign; for in proportion to the comfort and attractiveness of our churches will our people feel an interest in them and other people be drawn to them.

For the most part the title to our property is reported as good, but very few of our trustees are reported as having abstracts of title to church property.

Generally our churches and parsonages are well located; but in a few instances the building committees appear to have sought the most inconvenient, unattractive, or unhealthy site to be found. Now and then all these bad features are united—the place was fit for nothing else, hence, could be given as a place whereon to build a church.

The most of our churches are well heated, by far the greater number being heated by stoves, some by fire-places, and a few by furnaces, yet some are not heated at all. Of course in these latter cases, when the preacher comes around on a cold day, some leading member says, "Give us a short sermon to-day, brother." And the injunction is usually obeyed.

In most cases Sunday-schools are held in the churches. Occasionally there is a Sunday-school room, or a separate building in which the Sunday-school is held.

The reports show that eighty additional parsonages are needed. Eight districts report a demand for fifty-six additional churches. It is safe to say that not less than a hundred additional churches are needed to supply the present demand. In view of all these facts your committee beg leave to make the following recommendations:

1. That in all cases, before purchasing real property for the church, the trustees obtain an abstract of title to the same, as this is the only means by which the title may be known to be perfect.

2. That in selecting locations for churches and parsonages particular attention be paid to healthfulness, convenience and attractiveness of site.

3. That our preachers be urged to see that their stewards keep the churches as comfortable, clean and attractive as possible.

4. That as far as possible separate places for holding Sunday-school be provided so that the Sunday-schools may in no way interfere with church services.

5. We most earnestly recommend the prayerful attention of the entire Conference to the great demand for additional churches and parsonages within her bounds. Most heartily do we commend the Woman's Department of the Board of Church Extension for Parsonage Building. We urge the formation of a society of the Woman's Department in every charge, and pray God that the time is near at hand when all our people shall have good houses in which to worship Him, and all our preachers good homes to which to take their families.

Respectfully submitted, J. B. MARTIN, Chairman.

NELSON B. HENRY, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE.

Your committee to consider and report upon the Bible Cause beg leave to report as follow:

Upon investigation we find that the American Bible Society has done great good in carrying the Word to a surprisingly large number of homes that were formerly without it, but are persuaded that many families in some localities are still unsupplied. Further, we believe that the Bible is what it claims to be, "the sword of the Spirit," that the spiritual life of the individual is commensurate with the intelligent understanding and appropriation of its truths, and that the power of the Church as the great agency for uplifting humanity, depends upon the dissemination of its teaching; therefore,

Resolved 1st. That we give our endorsement and sympathy to the American Bible Society, and request our people to make contributions for carrying forward their noble work.

Resolved 2d. That we urge that our people make more diligent and reverent study of the Scriptures, that they hide it in their hearts that it may transform their lives, and that with earnestness and patience they teach them to their children.

Respectfully,

R. B. JOHN, Chairman.

[Document No. 7.]

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The Board beg leave to report as follows:

We gather from various sources that there is a constantly growing interest, throughout the bounds of our Conference, on the subject of general and christian education. Our schools, generally, are better patronized than heretofore. This is encouraging, and we would most earnestly urge our people to put forth still greater efforts to build up and support good primary and and academical schools in their midst.

LITTLETON FEMALE COLLEGE.

We are pleased to learn that this institution, located at Littleton, N. C., is in a growing and prosperous condition, the patronage increasing since last January from 20 to 79 pupils. This school deserves the attention and support of our people.

JONESBORO HIGH SCHOOL.

We learn that the Jonesboro High School, the District Conference School of the Fayetteville District, was never in a more prosperous condition. It is in charge of Prof. J. M. Broom, who is giving, as we learn, satisfaction, to the Trustees and friends of the school. We commend this school to the favorable consideration of our people.

DAVENPORT FEMALE COLLEGE.

This property belongs to our Conference, but it has been leased for a term of years, for school purposes. The school is not under our control. We recommend, that a committee of three be appointed to inquire into the condition of the College property, and also to ascertain whether or not the conditions of the lease have been complied with, and to report to the next Conference.

GREENSBORO FEMALE COLLEGE.

We are rejoiced to see that this most excellent institution of learning is, as the years go by, growing in favor, efficiency and general usefulness. This is the great centre of Methodist female education in N. C. We, therefore, look upon it as being a mighty factor in the upbuilding and the maintaining of North Carolina Methodism. To this end we most heartily commend it to the careful consideration of our people, and would earnestly urge them to give it an increased patronage.

TRINITY COLLEGE.

From the report of the President of the College, and other sources, your Board obtains the following information:

The exercises of the Spring Term of the College were conducted by the faculty, as organized during the two years of management by the committee, and closed with a commencement which was largely attended and highly creditable. A class of six worthy young men received graduating diplomas. At the close of the exercises, Rev. John F. Crowell having been previously elected by the Board of Trustees, was installed as President of the College. Under his administration, the Fall Term opened the 24th of August. Prof. A. W. Long having resigned the chair of English and History, Prof. J. L. Armstrong, having been previously elected by the Board of Trustees, came in as Professor of English, German and Elocution. President Crowell assumed the chair of History and Constitutional and International law, and Prof. J. F. Heitman, that of Greek and Metaphysics. The other chairs remained organized and filled as before.

The faculty now consists of a President, six Professors and two Tutors. One hundred and eighty students have been enrolled during the Spring and Fall Terms of 1887, which is a gain of fourteen over the attendance of last year, and the largest number for several years. Twenty of those attending during the year expect to enter the ministry, and fifteen are sons of ministers. The buildings are in a good state of repair, and are insured in the sum of $10,000.

The aggregate of salaries for President, Professors and Tutors for the year 1887 is		$ 6,878.25
Received on Tuition	$2,170.42
Received on special endowment of chair of G. & M.,	450.00
On subscription to President's salary	150.00
On Conference collection	2,241.26
Total received on salaries		5,011.68
Still due on Tuition for the year		881.58
Total available assets for salaries		$ 5,893.26
Deficit on salaries		$ 984.99
Free tuition to ministers' sons		465.00
Free tuition to ministerial students		520.00
Tuition on time to twenty students		546.00

During the year up to date $1,166.81 have been received from fees, books and stationery, and $1,375.67 have been paid out for books, stationery and incidental expenses; but the amount yet due for books and fees will make up this difference. In view of the deficit on salaries of $984.99, we recommend that the whole of the collection raised this year by the Conference be applied to the payment of salaries of members of the Faculty including the President, and that the Treasurer of the Faculty be directed to pay out the sum pro rata according to the deficiency on salary for the Spring and Fall Terms combined, of each member of the Faculty. But after this collection has been so applied, there will still be as above stated a deficit of $984.99. This deficit the Trustees propose to raise by private subscription, a committee having heretofore been appointed for that purpose, and more than enough has already been subscribed to meet this deficiency. This subscription, however, is for the President's salary alone. Should enough be thus secured to pay his entire salary, it is directed that any sums which the President may have received from the Tuition fund and from the Conference collection fund, shall be refunded, and be applied to the deficiencies on the salaries of the Professors.

The Conference collections as raised by Districts was as follows:

DISTRICTS.	ASSESSED.	PAID.
Raleigh	$ 470.00	$ 265.37
Durham	386.67	214.06

DISTRICTS.	ASSESSED.	PAID.
Greensboro	386.66	314.79
Salisbury	345.34	149.84
Statesville	350.00	105.50
Shelby	386.67	49.50
Charlotte	418.66	117.00
Fayetteville	354.67	230.05
Wilmington	390.00	94.25
New Berne	464.66	175.00
Warrenton	366.67	95.81
Washington	363.34	172.39
Trinity College	316.66	257.70
Total	$5,000.00	$2,241.26

We are glad to welcome Prof. Crowell among us, and pray heaven's richest blessing upon him, in his most arduous undertaking. We pledge him our hearty co-operation and assistance, in any measures looking to the upbuilding of Trinity College. Therefore,

Resolved 1st. That we recommend the appointment, by the Bishop, of a Financial Secretary for Trinity College, to reside at the College if practicable, whose duty shall be;

1. To serve as Treasurer of the Faculty, receiving the compensation now paid that officer, to be paid as a member of the Faculty, and to be present at stated periods to collect College fees and dues from students.

2. To solicit patronage for the College.

3. To collect the interest and principal falling due on notes on the endowment fund.

4. To solicit contributions for the endowment fund, by personal canvass, and mass meetings in connection with the co-operation of Pastors and Presiding Elders, on the plan already adopted.

5. To make a full report of the financial condition of the College to the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees, and to the Annual Conference.

6. That the salary of the Financial Secretary be fixed by the Executive Committee, including compensation as Treasurer of the College Faculty.

Resolved 2d. That a collection of $5,000 for the ensuing Conference year be ordered to supplement the salaries of the President and the Professors of the College, and that the apportionment of this amount to the several Presiding Elders Districts be made by the Financial Secretary of the College, on the basis of the Conference Claimant Assessment, and that the Pastors take this collection with their other collections. These collections to be paid to the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees, to be disbursed under their direction, and through the Finance Committee of the College.

That the Bishop be requested to appoint Rev. J. F. Heitman a Professor in Trinity College, and Rev. A. W. Mangum, D. D., Professor in the University of North Carolina.

REPORT OF SUNDAY-SCHOOL BOARD.

The Sunday-school Board beg leave to submit the following report:

We are gratified at being able to report an increased activity in the Sunday-school work within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference. There are 939 schools, an increase of 53; officers and teachers 6,440, an increase of 356; number of scholars 54,884, an increase of 3,901; the amount contributed for literature, $8,626.61; for Missions, $2,106.25 and for other objects, $1,190.45.

We heartily commend those Districts, which have held Sunday-school District Conferences, and recommend that there be held in every pastoral charge a Sunday-school Conference as early as practicable in the year, and that delegates be elected to the Sunday-school District Conference as provided for by law.

Our Sunday-school Literature, published at Nashville, Tennessee, is in every way worthy of our patronage, and we recommend the same to our schools. "The Sunday Magazine," "Senior Quarterly," "Intermediate Quarterly," "Illustrated Lesson Papers," "Our Little People," "Sunday-school Visitor," and our Catechisms.

"Children's Day" was profitably observed in many places, and we urge upon each Pastor and Superintendent to make arrangements for the observance of the same next year as proposed by the General Conference.

The Treasurer's report of the funds from children's day is as follows:

Raleigh District	$ 29 06
Durham District	60 12
Greensboro District	26 70
Salisbury District	22 00
Statesville District	13 35
Shelby District	0 00
Charlotte District	51 05
Fayetteville District	36 95
Wilmington District	6 35
New Berne District	25 63
Washington District	13 73
Warrenton District	34 19
Trinity College District	25 47
	$344 60

The distribution of this fund will be made according to the following plan and regulations:

1. The Treasurer of the Sunday-school Board is constituted the agent of the fund, and shall dispose of them only in the way determined on by the Board.

2. The Agent shall put on deposit at our Publishing House in Nashville, Tenn., all the funds raised on children's day, for the support of destitute schools in the bounds of our Conference.

3. The Agent shall have power to aid or not, as he shall judge best from all the information he may obtain in regard to the school or schools asking help.

4. The funds shall be subject to the draft of the Agent of this Board, but in no case shall it be used for any purpose except in purchasing Sunday-school literature for the use of the schools to be aided.

5. No application shall be considered unless statement be made therein that the school is unable to supply itself with literature, and signed by the preacher in charge and superintendent.

6. No school shall be aided more than ten cents per member per annum.

7. All schools which expect to be aided more than one year must furnish to the Sunday-school Board a statement of their progress.

8. The Agent shall report to the Sunday-school Board at its meeting during the session of the Annual Conference the schools helped, giving names of Circuits, Stations or Missions, and Districts, where these schools are situated, together with the amounts furnished each, and the amount on hand.

We, your Board, recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That we recommend to all our schools the use of only such literature as is recognized by our General Conference, and to discountenance the introduction of any Sunday-school literature not emanating from our Publishing House.

2. That we recommend the discouragement of Union Sunday-schools, and urge the organization of schools under our own superintendence and control wherever ten persons can be found who are not in attendance upon Sunday-schools. We recommend further that parents in our Church see to it that their children attend our own schools to the exclusion of others.

3. It is the sense of this Board that the Sunday-schools of the North Carolina Conference do never adjourn, and if by reason of bad weather or revival seasons they fail to hold their sessions, such failure must be regarded as a necessity and not in accord with the wishes of the Board.

REPORT No. 2 OF BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The Board of Missions have had under careful and prayful consideration the work entrusted to them. They were diligent to ascertain the needs and prospects of the various Mission fields within our jurisdiction and have made their appropriations in accordance therewith. Some of these appropriations are unusual, and may, at first glance, seem unwise and unequal, but, after careful discussion, it was thought that the exigencies of the present demand them, and that in the future they will prove an investment well made.

The Board has found it needful to ask a considerable increase in the collections for the Domestic Missionary Fund, growing out of the formation of a number of new Missions, at points where such work is not only needful, but promising. We feel constantly hampered in our work by the lack of funds to do what our best judgment suggests. And while we are gratified at the degree of success that has attended our present methods, we feel that with more money at our command, our success could be greatly increased.

The Church is amply able to furnish all that we need. Our work drags, not for lack of ability, but of availability. We appeal to the preachers to give diligence to this department of their labors. To them we must look for success. The Church will be largely what they make it on this line. If they are well instructed themselves as to the duty and needs of the Mission work, and are themselves all on fire with zeal for the salvation of the world, they will fire the heart of the Church. Brethren a great responsibility rests upon you. Let us meet it as true soldiers of Jesus Christ.

Fidelity to this work brings success at home. The church's greatest progress at home, has been during periods of greatest Missionary activity.

The Board have suggested a plan looking to the dissemination of Missionary literature and ask the hearty co-operation of every preacher.

We desire the passage of the following resolutions:

Resolved 1st. That all money paid to the Missionaries in the interim of the Conference sessions be paid through the Presiding Elder, and all receipts given to them, and that they be required to furnish a written statement to the Treasurer of the Board of such disbursement together with receipts for the money.

Resolved 2d. That the forenoon of Saturday of each District Conference or such part of it as may be necessary, be set apart for the consideration of Missions, and that a special person be designated to deliver an address or preach a sermon on the subject.

Resolved 3d. That the Presiding Elders be required to furnish the chairman of the Board at as early a date as possible the assessments upon the charges in their Districts for Missions.

Resolved 4th. That the Presiding Elders be requested to pay special attention to the Missions in the bounds of their Districts.

The Board unanimously adopted the following and requested that it be presented with the report.

On motion the Board unanimously adopted the following opinion, and with all deference herewith present it, to-wit: That the Bishop and his Presiding Elders confine the formation of Missions to those territories that promise to become in the near future self-sustaining work, without wasting money on doubtful experiments, and then the Board promise, if strong efficient men are placed in charge of such Missions, to appropriate the money for supporting these efficient men upon these fewer and more promising Missions.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

The time has come when precepts condemning the excessive use of intoxicating liquors, and recommending total abstinence as the duty of the individual Christian have become trite platitudes. In our utterances we are called upon to do more than this. The question of to-day is not whether Christians ought to drink intoxicating liquors. That question has been long settled. No true Methodist drinks or can do so without scandalizing his Church. The question now is whether the Church shall recognize the traffic in intoxicating liquors for purposes of drunkenness as legitimate. Shall the State continue to legalize the traffic? What is the attitude of this body on that question?

In answer to this question your committee recommend the following resolutions:

Resolved 1st. That we recognize drunkenness as a great social evil.

Resolved 2d. That we recognize the legalized distillery as the chief promoters of this evil.

Resolved 3d. That for the suppression of this great evil we advocate the suppression of the distillery and the bar-room by Constitutional enactment as the only method that promises to be permanently effective.

Resolved 4th. That we will support and recommend all laws of the State looking to the suppression of the traffic, while we disapprove and condemn as immoral all legislation that tolerates evil for purposes of revenue.

Resolved 5th. That we will heartily co-operate with and encourage all organizations which have for their object the promotion of the principles of Temperance and the suppression of the vices of drunkenness.

Resolved 6th. That in particular we do declare our profound appreciation of the grand work of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and we hereby commend that organization to the favor of the women of the Church.

Resolved 7th. That we condemn the practice of letting property for bar-room purposes as inconsistent with the vows and obligations of a member of the Church.

Resolved 8th. That we recommend the introduction of Temperance literature into our schools, and the systematic instruction of the children as to the baneful effects of alcohol on the human system. In this connection we would draw attention to the "Red Dragon," a Temperance Catechism published by Dr. H. T. Hudson, and a pamphlet by Rev. P. L. Groome.

ANNIVERSARY MEETING—MISSIONARY BOARD.

SATURDAY EVENING, December 3d, 1887.

The Missionary Board of the North Carolina Annual Conference held its anniversary meeting at the Hay Street Methodist Church, Fayetteville, N. C., this evening at 7½ o'clock, Rev. F. D. SWINDELL, President, in the chair. Opening services were conducted by Revs. F. D. SWINDELL and B. R. HALL.

The following reports were submitted and handed subsequently to the Secretary of the Conference for publication:

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS OF NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE.

We rejoice to know that there is a decided improvement in the Missionary work in our Conference over last year. And we feel profoundly thankful to Almighty God for the success that has attended the labors of our ministers (Missionaries) within our bounds, in bringing souls to Christ, and in the spiritual and material improvement of all the interests committed to their care.

There has been advance along the line on most of the Missions. Quite a number of new Churches have been built and repaired during the year, and the people of the different charges in our Conference have been more liberal in giving of their means for Domestic Missions. About $500 more were raised for Domestic Missions this year than last.

Twenty-four charges in our Conference received appropriations from the Board this year.

Six new Missions have been formed with the prospect of another.

Five Missions, during this session of our Conference, have been raised to self-sustaining works, and others will become self-sustaining in the near future. And we feel sure that, if our people will come up to the full extent of their ability for the cause of Missions within our bounds, hundreds more now destitute of the gospel as we preach it, will soon be brought to Jesus Christ, the friend of sinners and the Saviour of the world.

May the Great Head of the Church inspire our people to increased liberality for this grand and glorious cause, which lies so near the great and tender heart of the Master.

Respectfully submitted,

P. F. W. STAMEY, Secretary.
